Parent Notice of Section 504 of The Rehabilitation Act of 1973

Section 504 prohibits discrimination against disabled persons in any federally-funded program. To fulfill Section 504 obligations, OSSU is responsible for prohibiting discrimination in policies and practices regarding personnel and students.

OSSU is responsible for identifying, evaluating and affording access to appropriate educational services if a student is found 504 eligible. A parent/guardian disagreeing with the school staff's determination is entitled to a hearing with an impartial hearing officer.

FERPA (The Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act) specifies rights related to educational records to parents or guardians the right to:

1. Inspect/review the child's educational records
2. Request copies of any of these records. (first 10 pages at no cost)
3. Receive a list of persons having access to these records
4. Request an explanation of any record.
5. Request an amendment to any record on the grounds of being inaccurate, misleading or violates the child's rights
6. A hearing on the issue if the school refuses to make the amendment.
